THE PRODUCE MARKET.

Bad Weather Materially Affects the

and the rise in temperature had the effect of slightly affecting the produce market in was of fair proportion, the demand being continuous, but slow. Upon the whole, however, the tone of the market was weak and varying in nearly all of the grades.

The unfavorable weather also caused small receipts of poultry, and the weather was also responsible for an obstruction of business. Clear, cooler weather is looked to improve both receipts and prices. Game was likewise affected, although rabbits were never more plentiful, and prices for them and quail were lower than usual. In dressed pork the late advance was lest, because of the weather, and also because of large receipts. The market is firm, however. On calves a decline of $1 per hundred weight was noticed. On lambs the market is steady.

Florida oranges still show an advance of from 75 cents to $1 a box, due to the recent freeze. In apples a like advance was ob-served on the choice varieties. In dried fruits the season is opening, and good prices are expected, particularly so on ap-

Potatoes, both Irish and sweet, are firmer, while the price on onions is unchanged, they being plentiful.

While corn is dropping, oats remain steady and firm. Straw, nowever, is dull, but there is a large supply of hay, the prices remaining unchanged. For dry, new ear corn there is a good demand.

Kernan's Lyceum Theater.—The Irwin
Bros. Big Show, which comes to Kernan's Lyceum Theater next week, is said to be one of the strongest and most complete vaudeville organizations on the road. In the company are The National Trio, Frank D. Bryan, Nellie Forrester and Gilbert E. Moulton, originators and composers of comic songs and parodies; the American Two Macs, undoubtedly the funniest Irish act on earth; Sam and Kittie Morton, America's representative dancing experts; Luigi Dell Ore, the musical wonder, Bennetto and Gannon, the marvelous contor-tionists; Carr and Jordan, refined sketch artists; John W. World, England's famous character comedian and eccentric dancer, Rench and Kennfedy, in a new and original act, assisted by their trained giraffe Jargo. The performance will conclude with Prof. John White's trick mules and pony, Judy, Punch and Ignuary, which trained giraffe. Punch and January, which is an attraction in itself. There will be matinees Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

The Philharmonic Club.—No organization has enjoyed the respect and confidence of the music-loving community to a higher degree than the Philharmenic Club. It has perfermed its work honestly and intelligently and has proved an educator in the matter of instrumental music. Its members are musicians of recognized abil-ity. Mr. Rakemann is a viclinist whose reputation is not confined to this District, and the same is true of Mrs. Lent as a pianist, and Mr. Lent as a 'cellist. The solo work of all has been warmly com-mended, and their concerted efforts have excited equally hearty expressions of ap-proval. The club at its coming concert, General Prices.

Mr. Polk Miller's Recital .- Mr. Polk Miller gave a very interesting dialect recital at Metzerott Hali last evering, before an audience of several hundred appreciative people, on the old-time negro. The entertainment was rather in the form of a desultory lecture, illustrated by recitations, and Esoteric Sciences of India, by the sorrors and stories which were greatly on songs and stories, which were greatly enjoyed by the people present, to whem this depiction of the plantation darkey appealed trongly. Mr. Miller is a proficient per-former on the banjo in the old style, and gave two or three plantation jigs and ac-companied himself on this instrument while sang quaint, plaintive songs of the parters." He has the peculiar softness diction that is the characteristic mark of southerners, and which adapted itself very well to an excellent imitation of the dialect of the Afro-American. It was a unaque entertainment which was a success in every way. Frank G. Carpenter.—The war between China and Japan makes these countries and their condition today most interesting to fereigners, and the fact that Washing-tenians are to have an opportunity of hear-ing something about the war and about these countries—and to Corea—through the medium of Mr. Frank G. Carpenter—than whom there is no more entertaining writer and interesting talker—is pleasant news indeed. Mr. Carpenter has recently returned from a 25,000 mile tour through these distant parts of the globe, bringing with time for the globe, bringing with time for the globe, bringing with the solution of information with which to deed. Mr. Carpenter has recently retain of the globe, bringing with him a fund of information with which to regale his audiences, as he interviewed everyone, from the King of Corea and premier of China down to the jinrikisha men of Japan. He took photographs every-where, and his talks are to be illustrated by magnificent stereopticon views. His Washington season opens at Metzerott Music Hall Monday night, January 21, with the talk on Japan, which is said to be packed full of fun and information, and the pictures all new to the public. He gives two courses during the week, taking his hearers through Japan, then into the Chinese empire and finally across Corea to the capital of that hermit kingdom and into the king's palace. The Schumann Quartet.—The famous Schumann Quartet of Chicago sang last evening at the Calvary Baptist school house for the benefit of the church fund. Probably no quartet in the country has such a wide reputation as these ladies, which was gained by their fine work at the world's fair. Mrs. Potter Palmer made them the recipients of a special gold medal, which they earned by their efforts. Most all of the numbers rendered were ballad selec-tions, but the audience showed their appreciation of these by frequent and hearty applause. The ladies composing the quartet are as follows: Mary D. Hall, first soprane; Mabel Waller, second soprane; Katherine Jenes, first centralto, and Tillie Heuchling, second controlto. They will be heard for the second time in the Calvary Eaptist Sunday school tomorrow morning. The Second Bischoff Concert.—The second of the series of Bischoff concerts, rendered last evening at the First Congregational Church, was well attended, the program being one of unusual merit. Miss Nelly King opened with the sonata in E flat, by Dudley Buck, giving it in a highly artistic manner. Miss Elsie Bond sang the Qui la voce from "Puritani," Mr. J. J. Fisher the Toreador song from "Carmen," while Mrs. Ettle Reeves Alderman surprised every one by her fine reidition of Liszt's Second Rhapsodie. The best number of the program, however, was the Contabile from "Samson and Delilah," which was sung by Mrs. John Seager, whose clear, strong voice came out splendidly in the difficult theme. Of course, every one knows how Dr. Bischoff plays, so that no criticism is needed here of his playing. He closed the concert with the beautiful Pilgrim chorus from "Tannhauser." The concert was a success, both in attendance and in the ren-

General Greely's Lecture .- "Captain

Bonneville and the Oregon Trail" was the subject of a lecture by General A. W. Greely in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association last evening. A large number turned out to hear the speaker and attested the popularity of these Friday HOOD'S PHAS are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, cure headache. 25c. night lectures. General Greely said that the story of Captain Bonneville was substantially correct, although colored in a few places with the genial humor and imag-inative genius which is so distinctly the characteristic of Irving. The lecturer spoke in high praise of the indomitable energy and fortitude of these men, who, though be et by so many perils, bravely made their way through the great un-known northwest and helped to secure the immense northwestern territory against the then threatened encroachments of the British. Miss Cluss' Harp Recital.-The harp re cital to be given by Miss Anita Cluss, harp virtuoso, at Metzerott Hall on Friday evening next will undoubtedly be a great success, as seats are being sold rapidly. Miss Cluss is one of the most distinguished harpists now before the public, and handles her harp with a grace and skill that is sel-dom met with. Her technique is remarkable. This will be her only public recital in Washington this season. She will play two groups of solos, one containing Thomas' "Seasons," Alvars' "Romance," Schnecker's "Mazurka," Hasselman's "Mel-odie in D flat" and Alvars' "Morceau Characteristique," and Aptommas' "Home, Sweet Home," and the other including Aptommas' "Welsh Melodies," Hasselman's "Bereense," Godefroid's "Danse des Sylphs" and her own variations on "The Last Rose of Summer." Miss Cluss will be assisted by Mrs. Kitty Thompson-Berry, soprano; Mr. T. Williams-Pearman, tenor; Prof. Anton Kaspar, violinist, and Prof. Arnold Meyer, pianist. Mrs. Berry will sing the Bolero from the "Sicilian Vespers" and the Gounod-Bach "Ave Maria," with harp and violin accompaniment. Mr. Pearman will sing the Bostetters. man will sing the Recitative aria, "Ye People Rend Your Hearts," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," and Dibden's ballad, "Tom Bowling." Mr. Meyer will play a Liszt Rhapsody and a Chopin ballade. Seats may now be obtained at Metzerott's music store

The "C. C." Course.—"Miss Jerry" is the title of Alexander Black's new entertainment, which he calls a "picture play," and which he will bring before the Washington which he will bring before the Washington public next Tuesday evening at Metzerott Music Hall. It is really only the illustration of fiction with photographs from life—made by the author himself. The heroine, "Jerry," is a thoroughly American girl, brought up in the far west, and who faces modern life in New York in her early womanhood. She launches into journalism and her adventures as a reporter furnish and her adventures as a reporter furnish ample opportunity for the 250 camera sketches which are thrown on the screen while Mr. Black reads the interesting story. She interviews Chauncey Depew in his office, and there is a picture of Mr. Depew sitting at his desk talking to "Jerry." She also interviews Farmer Dun of the weather bureau and many other notables. If Mr. Black's "picture play" bears out all the good things that have been said and writ-ten of it, it will surely prove a most attractive form of entertainment.

A Lecture on Art.—The first number of the Art Students' League 'ecture course will be delivered by Mr. F. Hopkinson Smith on the "Quality of the Picturesque," at the Builders' Exchange, 719 13th street northwest, this evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Smith is one of the best art lecturers in the country and there should be a large attendance, both of league members and outsiders.
Prof. Carpenter.-Every one knows what fun it is to go to see Prof. Carpenter's exhibitions of hypnotism. At every performance the hall is crowded, demonstrating the popularity which Prof. Carpenter has attained in this city. He will continue to give his exhibitions at Odd Fellows' Hall, on 7th street between D and E streets every night street between D and E streets, every night until further notice. Popular prices prevail, the box office being open from 12 to 3. "Glories of the Nile."—At Metzerott Music Hall on the evening of January 16 Lewis Harvie Finney will deliver his beautifully illustrated lecture on the "Clorica of the Street County of the Stree illustrated lecture on the "Glories of the Nile." All who have heard Mr. Finney can attest to his pleasing delivery, and the lec-ture, it is safe to predict, will be an unusually successful one. Seats are now on

Sousa and His Band .- If there is one man who does not need any introduction to a Washington public, it is John Philip Sousa, the march king. Sousa is enshrined in the the march king. Sousa is ensurined in the hearts of almost every member of Washington's music-loving society, who always take every opportunity of doing him hence. Mr. Sousa's band is today one of the finest, if not the best, in the world, being composed, as it is, of all the best bandsmen who played under the leadership of the late P. S. Gilmore. Musicians Object to the Proposed Marine Band Tour. Columbia Musical Protective Association met yesterday at Metzerott Hall. Mr. Richard Wagner stated the object of the association was to improve the conditions of civilian musicians. The money necessary to secure a charter in the National League of Musicians was subscribed and a special charter committee, consisting of Charles V. Schoffeld, J. W. Rice and E. B. Emrich was appointed. Mr. Wagner stated that the fight, which they were waging was not against the Knights of Labor. The fight had been precipitated by the military bands stationed in this city. Many rules governing military bands had been disregarded to the injury of musical civilians. Mr. C. V. Schofield moved, and it was so ordered, that Secretary Beck of the National League of Musicians should notify all the local leagues in the country to protest against the coming concert tour of the Marine Band. Amateur orchestras will be asked to co-operate and theatrical managers will also be notified of the action of the league. Upon the recelpt of a charter a meeting will be held at which addresses will be made by Jas. A. Tower of the American Federation of Labor, George A. Tracey, president of the Typographical Union, and Frank Padgett, secretary of the same union. A resolution of thanks was voted to the press.

Mr. Brynn's Address.

At a meeting of the Virginia Democratic Association last evening Representative William J. Bryan of Nebraska delivered an address on the best methods of spreading the principles of democracy. In the course of his remarks Mr. Bryan urged the party to return to its first principles and incidentally he criticised the President and the administration generally as un-democratic, and he also criticised Secretary Carlisle for having changed his financial policy and advocating a plan opposed to that held by him in 1878. He expressed the opinion that the money question would be the issue of the next campaign.
